

SSCS Parent Survey Question #3--2009

What do you like best about SSCS?

Parent Responses

My new ES- communicates well.

Star Testing-Awesome Job.

List Serv Educational Opportunities are outstanding

The one on one attention the kids get and the curriculum

All of the options for ways of teaching my son. I also like all of the many activities that come through list serve, just wish they didn't fill up so fast.

That it is still parent driven.

The wide scope of education available for my son.

Parent choice and freedom.

Flexibility, parent controlled and driven, "think outside the box"-ness

Flexibility and freedom to teach my student

Flexibility of Curriculum

The curriculum resources you offer are great. We love being able to home school and teach our children the best way that suits them.

Flexibility of funds

They support us without being intrusive

The timely responsiveness of any questions I have.

That it is parent and student driven. My children can work at their own pace and we find their learning style

I am pleased with the schools flexibility in the use of curriculum to best meet each of my children's needs

Concern for individualized education for each child

Parent choice

Parent Choice!

Parent, school and child work together for a better future

Able to work at home

The way my children are treated. They are treated like they're real people, not just a test score.

The heavy emphasis on "Parent Choice" curriculum and the no pressure way of documentation.

I like the Parent Choice I have about teaching my children, the amount of funds available to me, the contract classes, and GEAs.

Freedom to choose surriculum and educational goals.

openness to curriculum, timeliness of orders, good list of vendors

The ESs!

The opportunities to attend programs and activities with other families

Flexibility to educate my students how I choose

Her ES is always willing to help when needed, also we are not under so much pressure
Curriculum Choice, IF, I can be an ES and homeschool my own kids
I have the flexibility. My kids are seen as individuals. My needs as a parent are respected.

Books, exams and highly qualified teachers

Timeliness in handling things, my ES, Parent Driven! *

The fact that we are not regulated so severely as other charter schools with how we spend our funds the way lessons are geared for the child to work at their own pace

The support I feel as a parent from my ES

I really appreciate that the school pays one hundred percent for music lessons for my children. Thank you!

Flexibility and freedom

Teachers are nice and helpful

Great teacher, great school the curriculum options, the freedom I have to choose what materials/activities my child gets, and the funding to provide these things

The flexibility and friendly interaction with staff

High funding, freedom to spend with minimal restrictions, lack of pressure to use state adopted curriculum, parent driven

My ES

The ease of being able to order materials and the one on one my child receives

I like the school because my daughters get a one on one treatment where in public school they don't get

The system with the ES

The flexibility of doing school and instruction the way that works for our family

Independence and my ES

Choice of curriculum and materials

The funding allowed for extra curricular activities like music and physical education!

the individual choice- being able to choose the teaching methods and materials that work best for my children

Parent Choice and independence; funding

Flexibility and choice of vendors

The availability of classes- the one on one with the student

The freedom of parents to choose what is best for their children's education

The teacher comes to our home

I appreciate that I can school as independently as possible, while still receiving funding- All other charter schools I have tried have been so busy telling me what I can't do and have gotten more and more like the public school model.

One on One attention for my daughter. She gets her own computer to work on!

The flexibility to teach what my child is interested in and at his own pace.

The activities offered by the school program

The Freedom and options with help and support

Parental choices and the fact that this is given great priority

That it is at home

Freedom to choose the curriculum and the approach used in teaching our children.

Custom tailoring class courses for students level of learning and understanding

I can pick the curriculum for my son

The speed and efficiency from previous school experience, less bureaucracy

Flexibility and choice of curriculum planning

Able to work at home, excellent learning

Flexibility for students to learn the way that best suits them

Flexibility, great ES support

Flexibly, Ability to choose from many vendors for curriculum and vendors for external activities

My children like the school and they are doing good

Parent choice

The parental control in making decisions for child's education and the breadth of choices

Number of available vendors

Flexibility and parent control of teaching

The people, the help when needed, the encouragement

I like that i have a voice and that I am checked up on by the ES's advisor

The flexibility and professionalism of the people I have contact with. As a family we enjoy all the extra options offered

I think that I have the freedom to educate my children at home and have support with the school and ES. I like that there is not a lot of "red tape" to deal with- the charter makes it easier to educate my child and makes the process more beneficial then in a traditional public school funding is easy to use

Choices, guidance and variety

Open to my individual child's needs

Flexibility, the teachers

Options to educate my child

The availability of the instructor and the choices given in teaching material

Financial support, access to GEAs and extra curricular activities

The ability to choose my own curriculum

it is non-intrusive in my educating of my daughter

Free choice with few strings attached for home schooling families- we like doing it our own way. Great support for home schooling families through vendors and materials and curriculum

Parent driven. I have recently joined SS and my input with my child is more valued. My ES lets us make the decisions on education

It fits into our schedule with a toddler and baby. And I get to see my child all day. My son says he likes reading best about his school

The support of our ES and parent choice of curriculum and vendors available

Nonintrusive, great vendor list, excellent ES

That it is convenient and has a great learning method

Parent choice, our ES, GEAs

The service most

The teacher is very nice

I like how you let the parent decide what and how to teach

Everything is great!

The freedom of choosing from so many vendors to find what is best for my children

I appreciate that the school seems to honor parent as the primary educator

Funding, flexibility

Freedom of curriculum choices. Great ES, very good budget

Flexibility with curriculum. ES is wonderful

Freedom and great support

My child is able to do his school work at his own pace and at his level

Student choice of study and time

That my ES works closely with my child and me.

It is simple to use, they make our home-schooling experience less stressful and easier to enjoy.

Choice and freedom

The school allows parents to teach their children and the school helps in the process.

Parent Choice

That you learn more.

I like the ability to tailor educational supplies, opportunities and techniques to the needs of each individual student.

Large Budget & great and supportive ESs

Variety and accessibility

Great ES

We receive more funds than any other charter school I know. My children are getting great opportunities through the classes that are provided by the school

The freedom to tailor curriculum to my children's needs and the ability to use funds to purchase it

The one on one is the best for my child

My children get to be at home, take music lessons and there is adequate funding

1 Flexibility and say the parents have over their child's education

2. No unnecessary paper work/red tape

Parental participation, choice in curriculum

We can proceed on our own schedule and choose from a wide variety of materials

Flexibility, not rigid

Parental choice over how, what and where my children learn.

My ES and the freedom to pursue education with my son on an individual basis

The flexibility of the school. Not putting too much pressure on a child who was starting behind the curve.

We appreciate all the great suggestions and advice from our ES

Freedom! The hoops to jump through are big and easy- Not too many restrictions or too much bureaucracy or politics.
